

JOHN BOYKIN BIO

Full Bio

John Boykin's first career was as a writer and editor at Stanford Magazine, Wadsworth Publishing, and Krames. Boykin's nonfiction book, One Brief Miracle: The Diplomat, the Zealot, and the Wild Blundering Siege, is the behind-closed-doors account of the American diplomat Philip Habib's mission to stop the 1982 Israeli siege of Beirut. Former Secretary of State George Shultz wrote the foreword. It won the American Academy of Diplomacy book award under its original hardcover title, Cursed is the Peacemaker. He wrote his first novel, The Constitution Has Expired, to explore what would happen if the United States Constitution had to be rewritten today.

Boykin's second career has been as a designer, mostly of websites. His clients include the Federal Reserve Bank of San Francisco, Bank of America, Walmart, Macy's, Bloomingdale's, HP, and Blue Shield of California. For more information, please visit ApplegateLLC.com/John.

Short Bio

John Boykin's nonfiction book, One Brief Miracle, told the true behind-closed-doors story of American diplomat Philip Habib's mission to stop the 1982 Israeli siege of Beirut. Former Secretary of State George Shultz wrote the foreword, and the book won the American Academy of Diplomacy book award under its hardcover title, Cursed Is the Peacemaker. He wrote his first novel, The Constitution Has Expired, to explore what would happen if the United States Constitution had to be rewritten. To learn more, please visit ApplegateLLC.com/John.

ApplegateLLC.com